Response to Reviewer Comments

We thank both reviewers for their valuable feedback. We are addressing their suggestions by clarifying the literature search process and study selection criteria, improving the classification and comparison of the reviewed papers, and strengthening the discussion of security risks and validation methods. We are also correcting inconsistencies in the study counts and citations, improving the explanation of differences in reported results, and ensuring consistent terminology and formal academic language throughout the manuscript.